

EMMA KICKS ON

Luckily, for soccer, Emma Hubbard's mum thought rugby was too rough. m

The 12 year old has just taken part in the school sports Australia National Soccer Exchange.

As the daughter of a Kiwi father, the Hawthorn girl was originally pushed toward rugby, but her mother would have none of that.

"Mum didn't like rugby, but I mainly play soccer because my big sister played it.," Emma said.

"I love the people and it is just a really fun game."

Her Victorian team finished fourth after winning three games, losing two and drawing two.

In their victory over ACT, Emma managed to squeeze one past the goalie.

"I really love scoring goals," Emma Said.

"But I also like to make hard but clean tackles."

Emma plays for the Boroondara Eagles in the under 13 competition and occasionally fill in for the under 16 team.

Emma is a Progress Leader Junior Sports Star Award nominee.
